

Silverstein Photography Annual
10 Curators / 10 Photographers
March 27 – May 8, 2010
Opening: Saturday, March 27th, 6 – 8pm

Bruce Silverstein is pleased to announce this year's curatorial nominees and their corresponding selection of photographers for the Silverstein Photography Annual (SPA), Bruce Silverstein's third annual invitational exhibition.

As part of the gallery's ongoing effort to provide exposure to emerging artists whose work incorporates the medium of photography, Bruce Silverstein with the guidance of curatorial advisor Nathan Lyons, annually invites ten prominent curators to nominate one artist whom they feel deserves the opportunity for further exposure within New York's cultural milieu. This year, particular emphasis has been placed upon the inclusion of curators from New York City institutions. We are pleased to announce this year's curators and their selected artists:

Curator Nominee

Patrick Amsellem, Brooklyn Museum
Deborah Willis, NYU – Tisch School of the Arts
David Harper, Brooklyn Academy of Music
Sean Corcoran, Museum of the City of New York
Beatrix Reinhardt, College of Staten Island, CUNY
Mason Klein, The Jewish Museum
Edwin Ramoran, Alijira, a Center for Contemporary Art
Matthew Higgs, White Columns
Carrie Springer, Independent Curator
Mara Hoberman, Hunter College Art Galleries

Photographer Nominee

Rob Carter
Radcliffe Royce
Aude Pariset
Dana Miller
Charlotte Haslund-Christensen
Ben Gest
Nodeth Vang
Glenn Rudolph
Bahar Behbahani
Juliane Eirich

Alongside the artists' works, SPA will display statements from each of the curators that describe and contextualize his/her chosen artist's work within the arena of contemporary photography. In continuation of the gallery's commitment to the sustained appreciation and furthering of the medium of photography, the Silverstein Photography Annual provides a platform for new voices in photography as well for the efforts and foresight of respected curators from around the world.

Upcoming Exhibitions:

Rosalind Solomon
Trine Sondergaard
May 13th – June 26
Opening: Thursday, May 13th, 6-8pm